How does it work?

HCG is a naturally occurring hormone found in every cell of the body in trace amounts (for both men and women). It is found in higher concentrations in pregnant women in order to sustain the pregnancy.

Researchers have found that by administering HCG in small doses it may decrease body fat, which aids in weight loss when combined with a medically-supervised, healthy low calorie diet.

Is it safe?

Yes. Dr. Albert Simeons, a British physician, has been successfully treating patients in Europe for over 50 years. This is not a new protocol; it has been tested for decades. Our clinic and our doctor is now following this protocol here in the U.S.

Is it approved by the FDA?

HCG is available as a prescription medicine which is FDA approved for certain uses, but is not FDA approved for the treatment of weight control or obesity. Using HCG in dieting is considered an "off-label" use. Medications are frequently used "off-label" to treat conditions that are unrelated to their original indications, safely and effectively.

Are there any side effects?

Several positive side effects are associated with HCG therapy. These include: positive mood, increased energy, improved sleep, and increased feelings of satiety.

What is the cost of Raydiance's HCG program?

Initial Consult: $150 (Normally $299)
Group Rate: $99* ea. (Groups of 2 or more)
*(includes HCG prescription, first week of HCG supplies, weigh-in, measurements, medical history, vitals, program instructions, and q&a's with the nurse)

After Initial Visit:

MIC/B12 Shots & Herbal/Dietary Supplements available for a separate fee.

You deserve to look and feel your very best.

Lose up to a Pound per day!

How long will it take?

The program consists of Three Phases:

Phase One: Injections or oral tablets with Diet (23 or 42 day regimen, depending on the desired weight loss goal); A 30-Day Detoxification program is recommended either before or during HCG treatment

Phase Two: Maintenance/Reset the Body's Metabolism

Phase Three: Maintenance (for life)

Please call for an appointment. In order to participate in our medically-supervised weight loss program you must have a prescription from our doctor for the HCG.
